Seven Disciples on the Sea

Listen as your teacher reads John 21:1–19 and fill in the blanks below.
Brief explanations are given to provide additional information.

Fill in the Blanks

1 Peter and six other disciples were on the _____ of Tiberias (v. 1).

Tiberias is another name for Galilee, which is located in northern Israel.

2 The disciples fished all night and caught _____ (v. 3).

3 When the man on shore asked the disciples if they had caught any fish, they did not know it was _____ speaking to them (v. 4).

4 Obeying Jesus, the disciples cast their net on the _____ side of the boat and caught many fish (v. 6).

5 The “disciple whom Jesus _____” was the first to recognize Jesus (v. 7).

The beloved disciple is John, the author of the Gospel of John (see also John 13:23; 19:26).

6 Out of excitement to see Jesus, _____ jumped into the water to hurry to shore (v. 7).

7 On shore, Jesus had fish and _____ for everyone to eat (v. 9).

8 The miraculous catch of the disciples totaled _____ large fish (v. 11).

Many theories about the significance of the specific number exist; none are convincing. At a minimum, the number indicates a large number of fish.

9 This event marked the _____ time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after His resurrection (v. 14).

The Gospel of John reports two other times Jesus appeared to the disciples (see 20:19–23; 20:26–29).

10 Jesus asked Peter if he loved Him _____ times (vv. 15–17).

Many have pointed out that Jesus and Peter use two different Greek words for “love” (agapaō and phileō), but there is little evidence that the difference carries any special significance.

11 Jesus’ final recorded words to Peter from this event are “_____ me” (v. 19).
