Lesson 3

A Woman of Virtue

She Took Initiative

How proactive are you when something needs to be done?

Do you anticipate the needs of others and try to meet them?

Are you also willing to be patient when God is working in relationships?

When is it appropriate to act, and when is it best to wait?

What can we do while waiting?

She Remained Cheerful

What's the importance of your attitude when you do a job?

Does your attitude—or the attitude of those you work with—make a job harder or easier?

What do you think of people who complain a lot?

What does complaining do to the testimony of Christ?

How can we reflect His grace
by our work?

She Was Humble

Are you too proud to do the work that you've been given?

Do you avoid a task because you think it beneath you?

Are you willing to work with others—even those you don't like—for a good cause?

How often do you show kindness to those that aren't on your "level"?

She Worked Hard

How do you act at the end of a work day?

How can you demonstrate a solid work ethic when others begin to slack off?

How is God glorified by hard work?

What examples of service did Christ provide?

She Feared the Lord

What does the fear of God mean?

How do we show our fear of Him through our actions?

What can we do to inspire and maintain a reverence for Him?

She Dressed Appropriately

Why do you think some girls dress to gain the attention of others?

How do some guys encourage this?

How does culture influence our attitudes about clothing and appearance?

What does the Bible say about modesty and appropriate dress?

She Was Moral

Why do some girls try to pursue unhealthy relationships?

How do some guys take advantage?

How can guys and girls demonstrate a trust in God by the way they interact with the opposite sex?

How can they guard against immorality?

How can they wait for something good to come in God's timing?
